Additional Services

For services available at additional cost that our customers have the option to purchase, please go to www.volaris.com.

Notifying customers about delays, cancellations and known deviations

We shall provide to our Customers with available information on delays, cancellations and known deviations, by any means available and through any means provided by you, as soon as any contingency is known: by telephone, e-mail, at airports, boarding gates, passenger attention modules and through airport screens (where the airport allows it), through our crew members, airport service personnel and our website.

When requesting information through our telephone booking system, we shall do everything possible to provide our customers with timely and accurate flight information as soon as possible and in no case later than 30 minutes after a flight schedule change is known.

Suggestion: When making a reservation, it is important that you provide all the required data to allow us to contact you in case of a contingency.

Check-in

The customer must complete the check-in process electronically through our website www.volaris.com, the Volaris App, or at our counters at the different airports. For information on check-in times visit www.volaris.com.

Customers must arrive at the airport of the flight of origin well in advance and as specified when the ticket was purchased, carrying with him/her any necessary ID documents, which must comply with the immigration requirements valid in the country of destination on the date of the flight, and with any other requirements from the country or countries where the intermediate segments take place.

Check-in shall be made as follows:

- a) Customers with boarding pass and baggage allowance.

For customers with a previously printed boarding pass or who checked in online through the Volaris App, as provided in www.volaris.com.

In addition to the boarding pass, a customer must print, in advance, the applicable bag tag for the baggage allowance and/or have purchased additional optional services. Customers who do not comply with the weight and size specifications contained in our baggage policy regarding free baggage allowance (www.volaris.com) shall be sent to the Customer Service Area where they'll be able to purchase additional services if they wish to carry more baggage than the allowance included in their ticket.

- b) Customers without boarding pass

Customers without a printed boarding pass shall be required to print it at the modules available for that purpose, obtain it through the Volaris APP or may purchase an additional personal attention service.

Boarding

Passengers must be at the last boarding gate sufficiently in advance and as recommended during check-in, and must follow the boarding instructions of the airline personnel.

volaris

Restrictions on boarding

Volaris shall be entitled to deny transportation to people and/or their baggage when, in accordance with the applicable regulations and security measures, Volaris reasonably considers that this could imply a risk or danger, or that the transportation of such person, baggage and/or belongings is prohibited by the applicable legal provisions or restrictions. To this end, Volaris shall be entitled to search any persons and their baggage and/or belongings to be carried on board the aircraft as provided by the applicable legal provisions.

People entitled to special services:

Passengers with disabilities are entitled to be transported in accordance with the corresponding safety measures and to transport with them wheelchairs, walkers, prostheses or any other instrument, provided the use of such instrument is personal and directly related to their disability.

Passengers requiring a medical oxygen tank must notify the Airline at least 72 (seventy-two) hours in advance of their scheduled departure. Passengers who require the use of a ventilator, respirator, continuous positive pressure machine or portable oxygen concentrator of their own, must notify the Airline at least 48 (forty eight) hours in advance of their scheduled departure.

Pregnant women

Pregnant women can travel without any restrictions during the first twenty-seven weeks of pregnancy in any routes. As of the twenty eighth week of pregnancy or after seven days of giving birth, they may travel by providing a medical certificate that complies with the acceptance conditions and restrictions described in the policies, terms and conditions published by Volaris at www.volaris.com.

It is not Volaris' responsibility to ensure pregnant women have consulted with their physicians.

Overweight passengers

Customers with overweight may purchase an additional seat in order to occupy two seats if they require it due to their condition. Such seats may not be located in emergency exits, first rows or with service tables in the armrest. Similarly, Customer Service shall provide certified belt extensions for that purpose.

Sick passengers

Customers whose health condition prevents them from traveling, shall only be allowed in the flight if they provide a medical certificate from a physician issued no more than 5 days prior to their flight departure date and provided their condition does not present any risk to the safety of the flight, other customers or the crew.

Passengers with disabilities and/or reduced mobility can travel without having to submit medical certificates, signing any waivers or forms or complying with any special requirements, except in cases where the passenger:

- a) Is traveling on a stretcher or incubator
- b) Requires medical oxygen during the flight
- c) Presents any of the medical conditions considered as contraindications to air travel according to the World Health Organization (WHO). In these cases, the passenger shall be required to submit a medical certificate of fitness to fly
- d) When the intellectual or psychosocial capacity of the passenger prevents him/her from acting and following instructions without assistance

Passengers with disabilities and/or reduced mobility are entitled to travel with a guide dog or a service animal in the passenger cabin, without extra charge, by presenting the corresponding certificate to evidence compliance. Passengers must comply with the requirements to travel with service animals available at www.volaris.com.

Passengers with disabilities and/or with reduced mobility shall be located, according to availability, in the seats closest to the boarding gate according to the Airline's safety measures.

Wheelchairs shall be checked in as baggage, at no additional cost to the passenger. If the passenger with disability and/or reduced mobility wants to check-in an additional wheelchair, he/she may do so as part of his/her baggage allowance or by paying the corresponding charge for excess baggage.

Check-in of wheelchairs with wet battery shall be subject to the applicable Official Mexican Standard (Norma Oficial Mexicana) regulating the air transport of hazardous items issued by the Ministry of Communications and Transportation.

Passengers with visual, hearing and/or vocal impairments

Passengers who are deaf or with visual or hearing loss may travel with a guide dog, provided the necessary documents certifying it as a service animal are submitted. The passenger's word shall not suffice. Service animal documents shall also be required for transit and entry into the destination country, along with compliance with the applicable safety and hygiene regulations.

Passengers with medical oxygen requirements

Passengers requiring the use of medical oxygen shall be entitled to carry a portable oxygen concentrator with them, subject to the conditions and specifications contained in the policies, terms and conditions published at www.volaris.com.

Volaris shall transport prisoners provided they are escorted by representatives of a State or Federal entity. No more than one prisoner per flight shall be admitted and no prisoner shall be admitted if there is an inadmissible or deported passenger on the same flight.

Passengers with firearms

Under no circumstances firearms may be checked in flights with interline connections since, according to the established check-in procedures, firearms may only be checked in by passengers on flights with immediate destination.

In addition, and only with this alternative (v.club Plus) you have the following additional services:

(i) priority boarding, except with respect to those passengers with disabilities or traveling with children, (ii) the right to select "regular" or "standard" seats only when buying your ticket, at no additional charge. Not applicable on "premium", "additional leg room" or "quick exit" seats.

Note: In all cases, you shall be entitled to transport an infant stroller at no additional charge based on the aircraft's available capacity, provided the infant under two years of age is accompanied by an adult. Remember that the infant under two years of age is not entitled to a seat or to baggage allowance.

Additional baggage

To purchase additional baggage at any of our rates, go to www.volaris.com or contact our Call Center. Check prices in the Additional Service Rates section at www.volaris.com, or contact our Call Center.

Baggage Liability

Check the Passenger Air Transport Agreement for information about compensation in case of loss or damage of your baggage, which shall be subject to the laws and regulations applicable on flights within Mexico.

Flight Delays

Regarding flights originating within Mexico, the Civil Aviation Law (Ley de Aviación Civil) and the Volaris compensation policy, registered with the applicable authorities, shall apply. For more on these provisions, go to the Legal Information section of Volaris website at www.volaris.com.

Overbooking or Flight Cancellation

volaris

In case of overbooking or flight cancellation (for reasons attributable to the airline), the provisions of the applicable law in the country of the flight of origin operating the segment in question shall apply in accordance with the following.

Volaris shall inform the customer of any changes in their itinerary, through the contact information you provided, as soon as Volaris becomes aware of the contingency.

In the case of flight overbooking, Volaris shall call for volunteers wishing to give up their seats in exchange for benefits agreed directly with the passenger. Passengers with a disability, the elderly, unaccompanied minors and pregnant women shall be given boarding priority in substitution of volunteers.

In cases of flight cancellation, and at passenger's option, the following shall apply:

- I. Reimbursement of the ticket price or the part corresponding to the unflown flight segment.
- II. Providing, by all means possible, substitute transportation on the first available flight and providing, as a minimum and at no charge, telephone or cable communication services (making phone calls and sending e-mails) to the point of destination and meals in accordance with the waiting time before boarding a new flight; accommodation at a hotel of the airport or city where an overnight stay becomes necessary and, in the latter case, ground transportation to and from the airport.
- III. Transportation on a later date convenient to the passenger to the destination for which boarding was denied.

In the cases of Sections I and III above, the Airline shall also pay the affected Passenger a compensation that shall be no less than 25% (twenty-five percent) of the ticket price or the flight segment not flown.

Changes and Cancellations

Changes to flight dates where the country of origin of the original booking remains the same are allowed up to 4 hours before the departure time of the flight you intend to change, by paying the corresponding change fee and the fare difference, if any.

Change your flight through our Call Center, website, the Volaris App or at our counters at the different airports where we operate. Visit www.volaris.com or contact our Call Center for costs and policies.

Name changes are allowed (for a fee) up to 4 hours before the departure time of the flight you intend to change by paying the corresponding charge. Visit www.volaris.com or contact our Call Center for costs and policies.

volaris

Tickets are not refundable if you fail to board your flight or when changes are made past cut-off times (see above), nor shall any operating airlines be liable for the lost value

You are entitled to cancel your flight and be eligible for a refund by notifying Volaris within 24 hours after the ticket was purchased and provided you have not checked in for your flight, either by electronic means or at the airport; otherwise no refund shall apply. If your flight is scheduled to depart within a 24 hour period after your purchase, you may cancel your flight by notifying Volaris at least 3 hours before your scheduled departure and provided you have not checked in. All refunds for cancellations apply to the total cost of your ticket and to all the flights booked, that is, if you purchased a round flight your cancellation and refund shall apply to both flight segments (round trip), so that cancellations for only one segment or flight may not be accepted.

Service Policy

Any services purchased, such as passenger scheduled air transport, among others, are subject to the applicable Air Transport Agreement, and to the policies, terms and conditions published at www.volaris.com, which the passenger is required to read and be aware of.

Billing

Any billing of purchases made at www.volaris.com containing flights originating in Mexico, the United States of America, Central America and Interlineal flights shall be made by the selling airline pursuant to the terms and conditions applicable to Electronic Billing published by Volaris at www.volaris.com.
